

BANNERMAN GOVERNMENT ALREADY SUSTAINED

Forty Seats Lost to the Unionists in two Days Polling—
Two More Former Ministers Among the Fallen—
London Goes Strongly Liberal

London, Jan. 16.—With but two days polling over it seems certain that the Bannerman Government will be sustained by one of the largest majorities in history. Monday's returns even surpass the tremendous Liberal free trade sweep of Saturday taking forty seats from the Unionists and giving twenty-nine Liberals and eleven Labourmen. Against this the Government lost but one. The net gains therefore to date total 61 which is equivalent to a majority of 122. Thus the Unionist majority of seventy which the Unionists went to the country has been wiped out and in addition the Government has fifty-two of the eighty-one majority which is needed to be independent of the Irish party.

Among the fallen yesterday were two former Ministers, Walter Long, who was defeated by 2,692 in Bristol, while Gerald Balfour like his brother went down in Leeds by 1,969. Arnold Forster, survives in Graydon but by a greatly decreased majority. On the other hand the new ministers are being strikingly successful.

Burrell carried the former Tory seat of North Bristol by 2,942 majority while Herbert Gladstone and James Bryce have increased their majorities by over four thousand.

The alliance of Liberalism and the Labor cause was again effective. Of the eleven Labor candidates returned none were opposed by Liberal while a number who opposed Liberal were defeated.

London, historically almost as Tory as Toronto, and which returned only eight Liberals in sixty-one members in 1900, has as yet returned but six Conservatives in twenty-two seats. A significant feature of the contest was the fate of the Unionist free trader, Lord Hugh Cecil, son of Lord Salisbury who openly attacked Chamberlain. He was opposed by a "tariff reformer" and secured 2,356 votes while the Chamberlain candidate secured 3,565. The split gave the Liberal candidate an easy win. Gibson Bowles whose personal attack on Chamberlain was a feature of the campaign was second in King's Lynn but secured 1,154 compared with 72 for the "tariff reformer" Sir A. K. Rollett.

The parties now stand Liberals 96; Unionists 39; Labor 16; Nationalists 18.

QUELPH PRINTERS OUT

Guelph, Jan. 16.—The printers' strike is not yet settled. Both papers are being published, but are reduced in size. The trouble now hangs on the formal acknowledgement by the printers that they went out through a misunderstanding, and fireburning of the publishers at costs up to $20. Both sides have left the matter with President Lynch of the Typographical Union.

CORONER WILL HOLD INQUIRY

People of Lloydminster Suspicious
Regarding Death of J. Fleming

A Lloydminster case which is attracting the attention of the Mounted Police down the line will probably be investigated by Coroner Rush, of Vegreville this afternoon or tomorrow at the request of Inspector Strickland.

According to the story which has reached this city, John Fleming and a brother of his left Lloydminster one afternoon about a month ago with a team of horses to drive to their claims a few miles south of the town. When they left the city they were intoxicated and plentifully supplied with whisky. A few hours afterward the brother, still intoxicated, arrived at the home of some Galicians whom, and asked them to go out and look for his brother John who, he said, had got lost on the road somewhere. The Galicians went out and found John Fleming lying alongside a train, about two miles from the house dead. They brought the body to the house and next day it was buried without the formality of a coroner's inquest.

Since that time there have been stories circulating in the neighborhood, implying foul play, in consequence of which, Sergeant Worsley, of the Mounted Police made an investigation and a report to the inspector. The investigations did not leave any room for belief that the case was other than one of death from drunken exposure; that the man had fallen out of the wagon in his stupor and that the brother had gone on without noting that he was alone until he reached the Galicians' home. However, in order to satisfy the people of the vicinity, Inspector Strickland wired Dr. Rush at Vegreville this morning to go down to Lloydminster and have the body examined for the purpose of making a post mortem examination and settling for certain the cause of the man's death. Dr. Rush will probably go down this evening on the Canadian Northern train.

MANITOBA'S EDUCATIONAL TROUBLES

Winnipeg, Jan. 15.—The annual report of the Department of Education was laid on the table of the Provincial House and contains many interesting features. The most interesting of these is the statement from the Province of normal school official regarding the disadvantages to collegiate institutes from the fact that a course of training in these does not count in the University. The principal goes so far as to say that the close regulations of the University are a barrier to progress.

The superintendent of public schools, in Winnipeg, suggests in his report that the only remedy for the indifference manifested by the rapidly increasing class in regard to education for their children lies in having the compulsory attendance law well enforced.

The inspector of Galician schools dwells on the scarcity of bi-lingual English-Galician teachers in the work of educating Galicians in Manitoba.

TRETHEWAY'S SUCCESS
R. P. Inglis who returned from Montreal on Saturday, brings news of this remarkable success of W. J. Tretheway, at one time identified with the Edmonton Street Railway scheme, in the Cobalt mining field in the Temiskaming country, in New Ontario. Tretheway was the first man in that country to take out a miner's license and was one of the first men to locate a claim. He located claims J. B. 6 and J. B. 7. For the former claim he at one time offered to take $25,000 in cash, which offer was refused by Toronto people. Only a few days ago he was offered $150,000 for the property, which offer he refused, as he has ore in sight to the value of $1,000,000 blocked out in the mine and has only developed the property to a depth of 60 feet. Tretheway has already shipped $400,000 worth of ore to the smelter at Newark, N. J.

THE ELECTION NOT RECOGNIZED

Government Decides that a New Election Must be Held in Peace River

At a meeting of the members of the provincial cabinet held on Saturday the question of the Peace River elections was considered and the Government decided that they could not recognize an election as having been legally held there. The returning officer left Edmonton with the writ and with directions to hold nominations at Sturgeon Lake, which point it was thought he could reach before nomination day. Owing to the river being open, however, he was unable to do this. The returning officer not having arrived in the specified time, a mutual arrangement was made between the candidates and a vote was held under the supervision of the returning officer. Mr. Dubuc received the largest number of votes. The Government, would not however recognize an election held under such circumstances. The date of the new election will be announced shortly. Mr. Dubuc will probably be a candidate. Mr. Lawrence of Vermilion, who is now in the city may also run and Mr. F. Brick of Vermilion is spoken of.

FRANCHISE FIGHT FACES THE ALDERMEN TONIGHT

Inglis Contends That He Owns Street Railway Charter—Councillors Say He is out of it—What the Penalty Clauses Were

The principal question to come before the city council this evening will undoubtedly be the street railway franchise. At the last meeting of the city council Alderman Boyle asked that all papers relating to the Inglis franchise and every other matter relating to the street railway be laid on the table, which brings the whole question officially before the council. Added to this, the statement made by R. P. Inglis to the Bulletin that he intended to be present in person to prepare a letter to the council which would be submitted this evening brings both sides squarely before the council, and there is no doubt that action will be taken this evening that will result in having the matter thoroughly gone into. There seems to be a well-defined desire on the part of the aldermen to find out at the earliest possible moment just where the city stands on the matter and to determine once and for all whether the city's right of ownership in either the city or the radial lines was impaired by the Inglis deal and if so to what extent. In fact it seems that the city council wants to know at once where it is at, with the idea of going ahead at once to do something toward building the line. Several of the councillors have expressed themselves along these lines, especially Alderman Boyle, whose utterances on the question have no room to doubt his sentiments.

If the words of Alderman Boyle and some of the other aldermen who are equally pronounced on the subject are to be taken literally, which they must be, the Edmonton street railway is going to have a hot fight both in the courts and in the arena of municipal politics before it gets possession of the franchise which it claims to own.

Apparently the main interest in the franchise fight will centre around the question of the ownership of the franchise and charter for the radial lines, on which there seems to be room for legal contention.

A. the time the city acquired possession of the charter and franchise, the charter was placed in the hands of trustees who were acting for the city and who held the charter in trust for the city. This was found to be necessary, as the city under its municipal charter had no power to hold a charter to a line which proposed to operate outside of the city limits. When the Inglis deal was negotiated and the ratepayers of Edmonton decided to hand their charter over to Inglis on a two years' option for a deposit of $10,000, these directors, acting under instructions from the city council, handed over their offices to appointees of the Inglis syndicate, who still hold office. The city did not at any time hold the charter in the name of the municipality, and the question that now confronts the council and the city solicitor is whether the Inglis syndicate, having failed to carry out the terms of its agreement, can be forced to hand back the radial charter in spite of the fact that it was never vested in the city.

In order to get the views of the city aldermen on the question the Bulletin made a canvas of the councillors.

Alderman Mays puts his standing on the matter briefly and to the point: "Previous to the late election," he said, "I stated in my platform that I did not know whether Inglis owns the franchise or not. I said then, 'Go to the courts and find out.' The same now. They cannot have it if they do not own it."

Alderman Boyle said, "My ideas are these: At the time that the franchise and charter was handed over to R. P. Inglis and his syndicate the understanding of the citizens of Edmonton was that if the company did not perform its part of the agreement within the time limit it was to forfeit its right both within the city and without, together with the $10,000 deposited. I strongly opposed granting that franchise at that time, both on the platform and otherwise. I believed at that time that it was a mistake for the city ever to allow any one to have the street railway franchise within the city limits, and the radial charter was a very valuable asset to the city. As to the legal aspect of the case, I do not care to express myself at the present time, as in case of trouble the city council will be expected to take the advice of the city solicitor or other legal counsel. I will do everything in my power to prevent Inglis or anyone else from getting possession of the franchise within the city and I think that the city should make every effort to get back its radial charter."

"I am of the opinion that the city should make the necessary arrangements this year for the construction and operation of a municipal-owned street railway, and that construction should be commenced not later than the spring of 1907."

Mr. Bellamy said, "As far as I am concerned, I was opposed to the city granting the franchise in the first place to the Inglis syndicate, and I am of the same opinion now. I contend that the city should not entertain any proposition from Inglis or anyone else, either now or at any time, with regard to the street railway franchise."

Mr. Latta: Refused to make a statement with regard to the matter until he had a chance to get better posted from all points of view. He said he was not as well acquainted with the matter as he would like to be before taking any action.

Mr. Grisdale: If Inglis contends that the situation is still open, and that he wants to discuss it, I maintain that it is not open and that the city should not entertain him in that light. If he has a new proposition to make I would like to hear it before I make any statement.

Mr. Peard: I have always contended that Inglis lost his right to build a street railway within the city when he failed to build. As a member of the council I will stay by this understanding until the court rules otherwise.

I will say to the public in general I am now ready to treat any and all kinds of diseases, and I defy any one to bring anything to my office that I cannot relieve and cure if my advice is strictly complied with, providing it is a possible curable case. It matters not of how long standing or how hopeless the case may seem; those cases are preferred.

All I ask is to have you give me a chance to substantiate my assertions.

I also have bathing facilities for the public.

MANICARACUA LEAF 1904

MANICARACUA LEAF 1904

The very best tobacco that ever came out of Cuba can be so spiced in the factory that it will taste like a rank weed. It is a most sensitive leaf, and will absorb and become flavored with anything that it comes in contact with.

For this reason I give my personal attention to every shipment of tobacco for my Pharaoh Cigar.

As soon as it arrives at my factory I place it in humidors built for the purpose. The tobacco is kept here for from two to three years at a temperature and humidity which as nearly as possible correspond with the climatic conditions of the Island of Cuba.

This treatment thoroughly matures the leaf, removes the injurious "gum," and develops the rich flavor of the tobacco.

This is one reason why my Pharaoh cigar has so delightful an aroma, and leaves a pleasant taste in the mouth.

I carefully watch every step taken in the production of my Pharaoh cigar so I secure a steady, even combustion and a cool, sweet smoke.

None genuine unless branded "Pharo."

MR. INGILS' CLAIM

It was not altogether the unexpected that happened when Mr. R. P. Ingils in the course of an interview published in the Bulletin yesterday made claim to the street railway franchise of the city and to the radial franchise created by the charter for which the street railway company some time since entered into an agreement with the city. When the negotiations were in progress between the company and the city very vigorous opposition was offered to the proposed agreement on the ground that the recovery of the franchise without the tedious and expensive unravelling of legal entanglements was not a matter of absolute certainty. The history of similar concessions granted by municipalities to corporations did not appear to warrant the assumption that the recovery of the franchise and all the rights which were or might be acquired under it would be accomplished by the simple operation of the plain terms of the agreement. That such was also the opinion of the company is apparent in the announcement of Mr. Ingils.

This view however was not held by the majority of the ratepayers and in the belief that the intent and purpose of the agreement would be faithfully fulfilled, they sanctioned the granting of the franchise. In doing so the people of Edmonton relied upon the penalty clauses of the agreement for the recovery of the charter in the event of the company not fulfilling its obligations. That the company has not only not done so, but has made no reasonable attempt to do so is a matter of common knowledge and the ratepayers today on the recovery by law or otherwise of the charter and all the rights and privileges which go with it. Whatever therefore may be the nature or purpose of the negotiations which Mr. Ingils on behalf of the company may seek to open with the city council the citizens will expect that any further dealings between the council and the company will be conducted in the light of the violated agreement and in such manner as will not prejudice the city's right to the charter and all that goes with it.

CURRENT COMMENT

Regarding the designation of Provincial Legislators the Lethbridge News says:

"'M.P.' may be common in one or two provinces, but it is not good English, and is nowhere in accord with either official usage or the best literary and colloquial usage."

The Toronto Globe will please apologize for doing violence to its mother tongue.

The Mooseman Speculator says: "Some western Tory papers are booming Mr. Haultain for the leadership of the Dominion Tory party in place of Mr. R. L. Borden. Some people were simple enough to believe that Mr. Haultain was at heart a real independent in politics, and R. L. Richardson and J. Locke-Wilson proclaimed his independence loudly during the campaign. But the real Tory knew better, and now is quite ready to accept the independence as a label for the whole party. The Liberals of the Dominion would be pleased to see him in that position."

Commenting on the action of the Edmonton board of trade in endorsing Calgary's request for the Dominion fair for 1907 the Calgary Herald says:

"There is no reason why the petty jealousies that have in the past developed should not be buried for all time. Other sections of the Dominion build up large cities closer together than Calgary and Edmonton, and each thrives without seeking to detract from the other's resources. Edmonton has a great future. It is natural for Edmonton people to believe in their locality and in the idea that it is to become the first city of the new province. The same feeling is equally dear to Calgary people in behalf of their community. This is a natural pride which need not be intruded upon by a policy of fair play between the two cities. The same brains and energy that are necessary to make one, will contribute to the success of the other. It would be infinitely serious for either to realize that the other was standing still. As one grows, the other is stimulated. Active, fair competition is healthy and desirable, but not a policy of badgering and quibbling."

The Regina West throws some light on the spottish campaign methods of Mr. Haultain in an article in a recent issue describing the means adopted by the ex-premier's workers to defeat Dr. Shadd in the election of 1902. The West says:

In the last Territorial election in 1902 Dr. Shadd had been swamped in his election by a large bush vote at Erwood. He had no scruples there, and after every lumberjack within fifty miles of the place had voted, the officials, as a joke, and with the same lack of scruples as they had voted bushwhackers, enfranchised a tomcat that strolled into the poll, giving it the name of "Tom Catkin" on the poll book, the deputy marking the ballot for Captain Meyers and depositing it in the box.

Conscientiousness was never a defect of the Conservative press and the knowledge of this rascality did not deter the West from working overtime in the attempt to return to power the man for whose candidate the tom-cat vote was polled.

THE RHODES SCHOLARSHIP

The Rhodes Scholarship Committee for the Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan have prepared the following memorandum for the information of intending candidates for a Scholarship in these provinces.

The next election of scholars under the Rhodes' bequest will be made during the month of January, 1906. The elected scholars will commence residence in Oxford in October, 1906. Each Scholarship is tenable for three years, and is of the value of £300 per annum.

Until otherwise determined by the Board of Trustees there will be but one Scholarship yearly for both the provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan.

All candidates for Scholarships must be British subjects and unmarried and must have passed their nineteenth but not have passed their twenty-fifth birthday, on October 1st of the year for which they are elected. They must have reached the end of their sophomore or second year's work at some recognized degree-granting University or College in Canada.

Candidates may elect whether they will apply for the Scholarship of the Province in which they have acquired a considerable part of their educational qualifications, or for that of the Province in which they have their ordinary private domicile, home or residence. They must be prepared to present themselves for examination or election in the province they select. No candidate may compete in more than one Province, either in the same or in successive years.

Only candidates who have passed an equivalent to the Oxford Responsions examination, or those who are exempted from Responsions by the Colonial Universities' Statute are eligible for election.

Students who have taken a full course for two years, including Greek, at the Colonial University, are admitted to advanced standing at Oxford, and are exempted from Responsions.

The following Canadian Universities have applied for, and been admitted to the privileges of this Statute so that candidates coming from these universities who have fulfilled the conditions, are accepted as candidates for Rhodes' Scholarships without further examination.

McGill University, Montreal.
Laval University, Quebec.
Toronto University, Toronto.
Queen's University, Kingston.
Dalhousie University, Halifax, N. S.
King's College University, Windsor, N.S.
Acadia University, Wolfville, N.S.
University of New Brunswick, Fredericton, N.B.
Mount Allison University, Sackville, Manitoba University, Winnipeg, Man.

Candidates from colleges which do not enjoy the privileges of the Colonial Universities' Statute are required to pass the Responsions Examination of the University of Oxford or its equivalent. Arrangements are made for the conduct of this examination when necessary in each province. The requirements of the Responsions are contained in a circular which will be furnished on application by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, at Regina or Edmonton.

Candidates for Scholarships should notify the Chairman of the Committee, His Honor The Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Saskatchewan, not later than January, 1906. In any doubtful cases of eligibility the decision of the Committee of selection shall be final.

SOLIDITY OF CANADIAN LOAN COMPANIES

(From "Money and Risks")

The collapse of The York Loan has resulted in an intemperate, general attack, inspired by selfishness, by Canadian bankers upon the Canadian system of loan companies. Our loan companies assist people to buy farms, build houses, develop properties and generally have been a most important factor in the recent marvelous expansion throughout the Dominion. The fact that an improvident, over-reaching management in the York Loan has forced a disastrous liquidation is no valid argument against intelligently administered loan corporations. A truth which has been tested and approved by the accumulation of ages, is that the abuse of any system is no argument against the proper use. This is applicable to the present situation regarding loan companies in Canada. Canadian loan companies have shown themselves quite as competent and as fully reliable in handling deposits as Canadian banks. Since confederation, no less than ten Canadian banks have failed, which is a great number in view of the system in vogue in the Dominion. The Bank of Montreal, the Bank of Ville Marie, the Central Bank, the Federal Bank, the Exchange Bank, the Consolidated Bank and the Jacques Cartier Bank have all closed their doors with depositors' yammering on the outside. Against this record, four Canadian loan companies have failed, the Farmers', the Atlas and the Elgin and the more recent York Loan.

ANNUAL MEETING

OF WOMAN'S AID

Secretary and Treasurer Present Reports of their Past Year's Work

The annual meeting of the Woman's Aid Society of the Public Hospital was held last week when the following reports were presented:

SECRETARY'S REPORT

Many different schemes have been tried this year by the aid society of the public hospital and most of them were a financial success.

The first thing undertaken by the aid society was to serve refreshments
after a hockey match last January.
Receipts $11.00. In February during hospice week a hot supper was served to the curiers.

Also in February the hockey team offered the society the rink for one evening for a hospital benefit. This was accepted and a hockey match played by gentlemen of the town in comic costumes.

Mr. Mills in March offered his store two afternoons, March 18th and 25th
if the ladies would take charge of it, and he would give them 10 per cent of cash sales for the two days. This was arranged for and $31.40 was cleared for the society.

The next scheme was a home cooking sale to be held at Mr. Hall's on April 22nd, Mr. Hall donating 10 per cent of his sales for that day. As there was insufficient home cooking a second sale was arranged for on May 13 at Mr. Hall's.

At the May meeting a committee was appointed to discuss the advisability of getting out a Ladies Edition of one of the daily city papers, in aid of the public hospital. The committee met and decided that it would be possible to do it. Both papers tendered for it and the Journal's offer was accepted. Mrs. Braithwaite was appointed editor-in-chief and other appointments were made. A twentyfour page paper was issued and sold on the 1st of July and during the fair both in the town and in the fair grounds and also at the Strachcose fair. Receipts $69.89.

At the regular meeting in June arrangements were made for serving meals during the fair. The ladies of the Presbyterian church had the first day, the Methodist church the second day and the church of England had it the third. A ticket office was built near the booth.

At a special meeting held on Thursday Sept. 17, it was decided to have a charity ball on October 15th. Mrs.
Constantine was asked to take the management of it, and kindly consented. Mrs. Braithwaite taking charge of the supper.

Provisions were canvassed for, as for the fair, and the ball was a success, both socially and financially.

In November and December a canvass of the town was made for the annual subscriptions. The division of the town was made in a different way each lady taking just one line of business, viz: one taking the general stores, one the mills, another the implement stores, etc., and great success was the result. The subscriptions up to the present amount to $1,385.95.

The membership of the Woman's Hospital Aid Society is now about one hundred and thirty, and in a city the size of ours should be very much larger. We hope in the coming year that many of the strangers who have come to our city in the last year will see fit to unite with us, and help in this good work.

ALICE JEAN MACPHERSON,
Secretary.

A reliable cough and cold cure should be always in the house ready for use the moment the first symptoms appear.
It is always easier, cheaper and better to check a cold in the very beginning.
It is safer, too.
Shilo's Consumption Cure, the Lung Tonic, has been tested for thirty-three years, and ten of thousands of homes in Canada and the United States to-day are never without it.

A dealer writes: "SHILO'S Consumption Cure is without doubt the best remedy for Coughs and Colds on the market. Once used, my customers will keep no other."—L. E. Eddy, Nanaimo, B.C.

If it were anything but the best would this be so? Try it in your own family.
If it does not cure, you get back all it cost you. We take all the chances. Neither you nor your dealer can lose. Isn't that fair? 25c. is the price. All dealers in

EXECUTIVE

W. C. T. U. Executive Met in Wetaskiwin and Discharged Important Business

Wetaskiwin, Jan. 15.—A meeting of the executive of the Provincial Women's Christian Temperance Union was held on Friday the 12th inst. in the board room of the Alexandra school, Wetaskiwin.

The president, Mrs. Craig, opened the meeting at 10:30 a.m. with devotional exercises, after which the roll call was responded to by the thirteen officers present.

The interim minutes were read by the recording secretary, Mrs. McKinney and approved.

Mrs. Bellamy, provincial treasurer, presented her report, showing a balance on hand of $111.00.

Several items of unfinished business were disposed of after which followed a discussion of the establishing of a provincial literature depository. The meeting then adjourned till 2 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

After the opening exercises, the subject of a literature depository for the province was resumed. It was then unanimously decided to establish a depository in Calgary. On motion of Mesdames Richards and Bulyea, Mrs. Craig, Mrs. Slough, Mrs. Woodhall and Mrs. A. McDonald were appointed a committee to supervise the work of the depository. Mrs. N. Fraser of Calgary was asked to take charge of same.

A resolution was passed that the Dominion depository be asked to advance to us $50 worth of literature, to be selected by our committee and to be paid for as soon as possible, also that we request the unions to contribute $50, thus providing $100 stock to start with.

The vice-president, Mrs. Bulyea, then took the chair while Mrs. Craig presented her report as chairwoman of the committee on legislation and petition work.

After this had been read and approved the following resolutions were unanimously passed:

1. Resolved that, with unwavering fidelity, we declare and maintain the principles upon which our Woman's Christian Temperance Union propaganda is based.—Total abstinence for the individual and prohibition for the state. Any system which has for its central idea the continuance of the liquor traffic must have our disapproval and active opposition. Since those tried methods, nominated "Government control" and "public house trusts" have proven themselves utterly worthless as temperance measures, and have been strongly denounced by temperance societies in countries where they originated and are now operated.

2. Resolved that any system, whether operated by private corporation, Provincial Legislature or Dominion Government, cannot be accepted by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of this Dominion.

3. Resolved that we express our willingness to co-operate with the Temperance committee already in existence, in their efforts to secure desired amendments to the present license law, or local option.

A letter was read from Mrs. Edwards, Dominion superintendent of franchise, re petitioning the Government to legislate providing dowry for the wives of Alberta.

The executive heartily endorsed Mrs. Edwards' suggestions and the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Sharpe, was instructed to write to each union, urging that action be taken to secure wives' names as soon as the petition forms are obtained.

The providing of suitable accommodation and attendants for women lunatics was left over until fuller information could be obtained.

The installing of the curfew bell was also laid over until next convention.

Mrs. McKinney was authorized to write to the Minister of Education, requesting that a text-book on temperance be placed in the public schools. The provincial president was empowered to secure an organizer for Saskatchewan and to map out her trip.

The president, Mrs. Bulyea, Mrs. Sharpe and the president of the Moose Jaw Union were appointed a committee to arrange a program for the coming convention at Moose Jaw.

Before dismissing the ladies composing the executive expressed their grateful appreciation of the many courtesies extended to them by the Wetaskiwin school board, the principal of the school and the friends who entertained them in their homes with genuine hospitality.

Provincial Press Supt.

HOCKEY

The third game in the Peterson cup series will be played tonight in Strathcona. The line-up of both teams will likely remain unchanged, and the match promises to be worth watching. The Thistles are in splendid shape. They held a light practice last evening, and are confident of winning.

Strathcona has been unable to get together an intermediate team to play the Intermediate Thistles for the silver medals put up by Dr. Reid. Arrangements are now being made to play off the series with a picked team from Alberta College and the school, and some interesting matches will probably be forthcoming. No word has been received from Red Deer as to what date they will be prepared to come to Edmonton.

CURLING

Only two games were played in the cup draw last night, the other going by default to Mr. Goode's rink. The games resulted as follows:

J. Young U. E. Morris
M. W. Webb W. Ramsay
J. Thom J. Campbell

A. W. Campbell J. Willis
D. S. McKenzie A. W. Ormsby

The draw for tonight is:
Irwin vs. Moore.
Deaton vs. Wize.
Gallbraith vs. Hardisty.

The games for Wednesday:
Fraser vs. Lauder.
Campbell vs. Jellett.
Second vs. Matz.

The first rink to enter for the bonspiel is from Edmonton, and is skipped by Mr. McDermott.

ALDING SETTLEMENT

(Free Press)
Rev. Father Sinnott, of Prince Albert, who has been visiting the city was interviewed regarding the immigration work in which he has been interested for a number of years past, and more particularly since last March. He has been successful in locating a large number of settlers in the West, many of them young men and young women, for their own and the country's good, as the practical results already show. These have come from North Dakota, Texas, Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick and, Prince Edward Island. With the exception of Ontario, his native province (his home being Ridgeway, county of Kent), and Quebec, where he has also a large personal acquaintance, the reverend father has not personally visited the states and provinces named, but has carried on his work by correspondence.

Father Sinnott makes no attempt to conceal the secret of his success, but tells quite openly how he has found it the best way to bring settlers to satisfy one man from a locality and let him act as an agent. He got a few settlers from North Dakota first, and then when he found that they were actively engaged in bringing others, he encouraged them. In visiting Ontario he saw many fine young people who had no future before them. The parents were settled on 100 acre farms, which could not afford homes for their seven or eight children. He did not hesitate in such cases to advise that one boy remain with the parents on the homestead, and to invite the boys and girls to come west with him. He was not in favor of sacrificing the Ontario home; but he wanted to save the boys and girls who were likely to go to the United States and to the cities. They followed his advice, and in many cases the boy stayed on the old homestead, and the other came west, and now he says they are not sorry that they did so. In Alberta he has placed settlers along Soda Lake, Warwick and Vegreville, in the vicinity of Battleford, at Cut Knife and Tramping Lake; at Crowsheld, near Calgary, and thirty, eighty miles west and a little south of Prince Albert, at Munster, on the C.N.R. where he has gathered in 500 families from the provinces and states that have been named. The settlers are not all as yet actually on their land, but the homesteads have been taken up, some of those who have not yet arrived will come next month and the others in March and April. Among the number there are from Shennor, Quebec, Messrs. John Tait, Thos. McGuire, Simon Sullivan and John Evans; several from North Dakota, among them the brothers, George, Thomas and Joseph Anstette, from Ontario, three brothers, Thomas, William and Joseph Case; also three nephews of the reverend father, F.G.

ward, William and John Sinnott.

The reverend father has been fifteen years in the West; he was for nine years at Portage la Prairie and Regina and for the past three years he has resided at Prince Albert. He says that he is becoming every year more and more attached to the West. During his residence at Prince Albert he has travelled a great deal in every direction, accompanying settlers to their new homes, so that he has a thorough acquaintance with all parts of the country. He now proposes to reside with his people in the new colony at Munster, which is in township 37, range 21, 15 miles from the C.N.R. He will remove to his new charge on the first of April. The importance of his new settlement may be gathered from the fact that the first settlers went in on the 20th of April last. Besides the experience of the country itself as a basis of prosperity, the settlement has the prospect of good railway facilities, the line of the C.P.R. from Saskatoon to Yorkton running through the colony.

TOWN HAD TO WAIT FOR A NAME

Lamont, Jan. 12.—We would have let you know about it before only we had no name. We were just waiting for a name. We knew it was destined to be a flourishing town some day, and that day not far distant, but to have no name seemed too bad. So we waited till the railway could decide on a suitable one for our new "baby city." It is about 25 miles east of Fort Saskatchewan and three miles south of the little village of Star. It is situated on a beautiful level plain, with clumps of trees, scattered here and there. The Beaver hills lie away to the south and look very picturesque indeed, while east and west lie beautiful plains, to the north the land is more scrubby, and the view is not so broad, but to an agriculturalist it presents a very pretty picture from spring till winter; hundreds and hundreds of cattle pasturing on the unutilized prairie. Scattered little homes and comfort and plenty on every hand.

The people have been here many years. They have waited for railroads, but they did not sit down and idly wait. They knew they had a goodly heritage, and they grew cattle, pigs and sheep; they cultivated the land, large tracts of it, till now where can you go in Northern Alberta that you will find more grain, and better grain, than through this country north of Lamont. Farmers have held on to their stock and produce this year, hoping that they would not have to travel to Edmonton with it.

We need an elevator here very badly; it is just the place for a good grist-mill. It is in fact the place for all kinds of business that flourishes in a large town, for it goes without saying, that we are destined to have, if not the best, one of the best towns on the line of the C. N. R. A large hotel is in course of erection; the proprietor is Mr. Henning of Winnipeg, who foresees great things in this place.

Mr. Fred Smith is buying hogs and wheat and paying highest cash prices. He has excavated for a 30 x 40 residence, on which he intends to build in the spring.

Dr. A. E. Archer is excavating a cellar also, and will move his present Star residence here in the spring, and in addition intends erecting a large drug store and office.

R. J. Forth of Star and J. Johnston of Galt, have commenced operations for the building of a large up-to-date creamery to be in operation by May 1.

There will be a post office as soon as necessary arrangements can be made.

There certainly are chances here for the man who is not afraid to pioneer a business in a new town.

The Methodist and Presbyterian congregations have both selected sites (and are intending to build thereon in the spring).

The school is almost within the town limits and will not have to be moved for some years at least.

Now there are lots of towns making a noise about how they will go ahead, but, fellow-countrymen, we need the back of the town every time. We need the men and the plow; or the town cannot prosper. We have these things and our future prosperity is assured.

—Rev. C. H. Heustis, pastor of McDougall Methodist church, will deliver a lecture on Thursday evening in the church, entitled "The Making of a Man." All are welcome.

—The Alberta Agencies will shortly occupy their new offices in the building formerly occupied by the Two Franks clothing store, which has been remodelled, and now presents a handsome appearance.

—The first carnival of the season will be held in the Thistle rink tomorrow evening. Good prizes are being offered. Rink open at 7.30, judging at 8.30, skating for the general public at 9. General admission 25c.

—A day school for girls has been opened in the city at Hildown, at the corner of Second street and Victoria avenue. Miss Partridge, from Toronto, is head mistress, and the new term commenced yesterday. Pupils are taken from eight to fifteen years of age.

—The Men's Institute of McDougall church will hold their regular fortnightly meeting in the school room of the church tonight. The topic for discussion is Government ownership of the great monopolies, railways, mines, etc. The meetings of the institute are proving of great benefit to those who attend. All men are invited to be present.

—High River Times: During the last few months the stockmen residing near the foothills have been complaining about the presence of wolves in their district. Numerous calves, colts, cattle and even horses have been attacked and horribly lacerated by these savage timber wolves from the effects of which they died. So cunning were they that despite a careful watch their comings and goings were undisturbed by the outcrops until they came across the dead carcasses of some of their stock. Fulton Thompson placed some poisoned bait on the range recently and this week he was gratified to find the body of a huge black timber wolf. The wolf weighed 100 pounds and measured seven feet two inches from tip to tip.

—At the Forestry convention held in Ottawa last week Hon. Frank Oliver described the conditions in the Northwest, and the efforts to renew and to preserve the timber, which were being made under government supervision. If it was found necessary, more active measures would be taken to protect the northern forests against fire. Mr. Oliver spoke with particular reference to forestry conditions in the Northwest. In parts of the Northwest the destruction by forest fires amounted to 99 per cent, and only one per cent by the lumbermen. It was difficult, he said, to grow trees in the northwest. It was not the cold, but the wild wind, that prevented the growth of forests there. The forestry question in the Northwest was of the highest and deepest importance and the deliberations of the convention, leading to better results, would be welcomed.

YOUNG LIBERALS "AT HOME"

The "At Home" held by the Young Liberal club in the rooms last evening was a most enjoyable affair a large number of gentlemen being present. President Geo. McLeod occupied the chair and in a few remarks explained the objects of the club and invited any of the young men present to become members. The musical program furnished was greatly appreciated. Messrs. McKnight and Baldwin gave a mandolin and guitar duet and were encored. Clara Race sang a solo that was much enjoyed and later on in the evening favored the audience with another song. Hon. C. W. Cross spoke a few words, expressing his strong sympathy with the work the club was undertaking. Howard Stutchbury was present, and his solos were never better enjoyed. A debate Resolved that the Chinese should be excluded from Canada, was very interesting and amusing. The affirmative speakers were C. Ross Palmer and Geo. B. O'Connor, and the negative side of the question was dealt with by J. H. Harrison and Frank S. Green. Duncan Marshall acted as critic, and made a few remarks in his own happy style. Balloons were distributed and the voting on the debate showed a majority for the affirmative. Wilfrid Gariepy made a few remarks and the meeting broke up with the national anthem. Mr. Brown acted as accompanist. The club purpose in the near future to give an "At Home" to their young lady friends.
